

»» MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., PARADE

DIVERSITY IS OUR FREEDOM

- » All faculty, classified staff, and students are invited to walk with San Diego Continuing Education in the 2011 parade. T-shirts will be provided to all participants.
- » Supported by ASB
- » You are encouraged to wear attire and/or colors that represent your country of origin.

Yes, I will walk!

Where

On the day of the parade, meet downtown San Diego at 9:30 a.m. in the staging area at Tailgate Park (13th and Imperial Avenue). All Continuing Education walkers will wear matching t-shirts, unless you are dressed in attire that represents your country of origin.
