

San Diego Miramar College Diversity/International Education Committee
Presents:

San Diego Asian Film Festival (SDAFF)*
Presentation by:

Lee Ann Kim

October 12, 2010 @ 8PM
SD Miramar College-Room D205

Come hear Lee Ann Kim, SDAFF Executive Director
Former Channel 10 News Anchor

*The mission of SDAFF has been to educate about the rich diversity of Asian Pacific Islanders
through the media arts and was founded by Executive Director & Journalist - Lee Ann Kim.

SDAFF annual festival features films, workshops, and speaker series. Throughout the year SDAFF

offers student internships and cultural literacy programs and also hosts other special events which highlight Asian as well as Asian American cultures and talents.

www.sdaff.org

SD Miramar College Diversity/Int'l Ed Committee will be co-presenting a film:
"If you Knew What I Said"

@ SDAFF in October for Filipino American History Month & Disability Awareness Month.

IF I KNEW WHAT YOU SAID is about the universal need to be loved and understood.
With genuine performances by deaf actors and deaf dancers (including lead Romalito Mallari who won Best Actor by the Philippine Movie Press Club.

– Lee Ann Kim

For More Information Contact: Judy Patacsi jpatacsi@sdccd.edu